

Since 2007, the UW School of Environmental and Forest Sciences has graduated 20 students from the Master of Forest Resources (MFR) program. Of the twenty graduates, 15 are currently employed in forestry related careers. Below is a list of graduates and their known positions.

Master of Forest Resources (Forest Management) Placement Information

Last Employment Information Given	Quarter	Year
No Information Given	Winter	2007
Forester, Hamilton District, Sierra Pacific Industries	Spring	2007
Forester, Ryderwood District, Sierra Pacific Industries	Spring	2007
Forester, Naval Facilities Command Northwest	Winter	2008
Natural Resource Specialist, Bonneville Power Administration	Spring	2008
No Information Given	Autumn	2008
Senior Environmental Analyst, City of Seattle	Autumn	2008
UW Forest Ecologist, funded by Washington State Parks	Spring	2009
Silviculturalist at USDA Forest Service working in Yakima	Winter	2010
Forester, Colville Tribe, WA	Spring	2011
No Information Given	Spring	2011
Senior Consulting Utility Forester with Davey Resource Group	Autumn	2011
WA State Department of Natural Resources	Spring	2012
No Information Given	Spring	2012
WA State Department of Natural Resources	Spring	2012
Finance Manager with Washington Contract Loggers Association	Spring	2012
WA State Department of Natural Resources	Spring	2012
No Information Given	Spring	2013
State Lands Presales Forester, Washington Department of Natural Resources	Spring	2013
Assistant Park Ranger and Environmental Program Manager, City of Bellevue Parks	Autumn	2013